NARRATIVE:

Gmora has an extensive adult criminal history that began at the age of 23 and includes convictions for possession of controlled substance, petty theft with prior, multiple trespassing (refuse to leave private property), enter / occupy property without consent, multiple use / under the influence of controlled substance, solicit lewd conduct, multiple burglary, assault, vandalism, interfere with public transit, unauthorized use of syringe and prostitution with prior AIDS. Gmora has served multiple state prison terms the longest a 32-month term for burglary. Gmora was released from state prison to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on January 27, 2013. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109) the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. He subsequently failed to report to his probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in October 2013 after Gmora absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Gmora qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because his current commitment offense for possession of controlled substance is defined as non-serious and non-violent under the California penal code. His prior criminal history and current failure to comply with the terms of release make him a most wanted. If you know his whereabouts please contact...
